

VINE AND BRANCHES

Volume 7 Issue 1

MARCH 2007

"I am the vine, you are the branches; he who abides in Me, and I in him, he bears much fruit; for apart from me you can do nothing." John 15:5

SINCE WE LAST WROTE...

David...

- traveled to Zambia for a two-week visit in early January to sort out some problems. The adjustment back to Africa was easy and his trip was profitable.
- taught on the subject of raising daughters at our church's weekly men's meeting.
- spoke at several missions conferences in Ohio and Pennsylvania.
- continues to jog his two miles most afternoons.

Terri

- enjoyed library books. She gets a bag full every couple of weeks on an assortment of topics, a luxury not found in Zambia.
- read a good book: The Treasure Principle, by Randy Alcorn. Thank you to our friends at Christ the Word PCA in Toledo for passing this book on to us.
- had a great time planning and hosting a six-course dinner for special folks who made our time in Africa easier by helping us (and David's parents) in many ways.

PLEASE PRAY:

- 1 For God to supply our financial needs so we can return to Zambia in July of 2007.
- 2 That we would love God more than anything else and that He would be our greatest treasure.
- 3 For good health as our "African" family tries to negotiate an Indiana winter.

Lizzie (student, Lighthouse Christian Academy)

- starred with sister Mary in a dinner/theater play of "Beauty and the Beast" for her school fundraiser.
- celebrated her 17th birthday at a Turkish restaurant, sitting on the floor to dine.
- babysat with her youth group for "Couples' Night Out" at our church, to earn money for an upcoming summer mission trip to Mississippi.

Mary (student, Lighthouse Christian Academy)

- had Grandma and Grandpa over for a sleepover and a few days stay when they lost power due to iced power lines.
- discovered which citrus has the most Vitamin C as she completed her ninth grade science project. She received an "excellent."
- enjoyed J-term at school taking classes in drama and speech.

John (student, University Elementary School)

- watched Indiana University basketball some evenings with Grandpa Wegener who lives around the corner.
- enjoyed watching the Indianapolis Colts take the Super Bowl title.
- played in the snow, went sledding, made snowballs, etc. during a great winter back home in Indiana. Thank you God for the snow.

Sarah (student, University Elementary School)

- celebrated her 11th birthday with a pedicure party with cousins and friends.
- sampled "Cookies from Around the World" at a missions conference. Great idea for refreshments.
- won $100 in a citywide essay contest.
